VIOLENT SEED
Book Club Questions

1. Which secondary character (not Terrence or Anne) intrigued you the most, and why?

2. If you've read the other books in the series, how have Terrence and Anne changed or grown? Has their relationship changed, and if so, in what way?

3. How did the setting contribute to the mood and tension of the story?

4. At what point did you start forming theories about what happened? What clues influenced your thinking?

5. Were there any red herrings that successfully misdirected you?

6. What did you think about Darby Reid? Do you think she changed or grew during the story?

7. What larger themes did you notice beyond the central mystery (such as justice, truth, memory, trust, revenge, betrayal, sins of the past)?

8. Were there moments that genuinely surprised you or that you didn't see coming?

9. Looking back, were there clues you missed that now seem obvious?

10. Were you satisfied with the resolution? Why or why not?

11. Did the ending reframe any earlier scenes or conversations in a new light?

12. When did you guess who the real killer was? Who else did you suspect and why?
